† Anthem Text †

The Everlasting Arms

What a fellowship, what a joy divine, leaning on the everlasting arms; what a blessedness, what a peace is mine, leaning on the everlasting arms.

Leaning on the everlasting arms. Leaning on the everlasting arms. Leaning on the everlasting arms. On the everlasting arms.

What have I to dread, what have I to fear, leaning on the everlasting arms? I have blessed peace with my Lord so near, leaning on the everlasting arms.

Leaning on the everlasting arms. Leaning on the everlasting arms. Leaning on the everlasting arms. On the everlasting arms.

† Missions Moment †

Recently, I participated in an Ethnic Church Leadership Conference for San Francisco Bay Area ethnic church pastors and leaders. The event was held on a long Saturday with presentations from various ethnic congregations, music led by a Mongolian church band, and a sumptuous buffet provided by a Korean congregation. Leaders from Korean, Iranian, Afghan, Cambodian, Burmese, Mongolian, Indian, Hmong, and Ethiopian churches represented their congregations and offered stimulating presentations.

I had been invited to facilitate a small group discussion in a breakout session and I felt honored to be one of the very few “American” representatives present at this event. The Global Church is here! And the Global Church is praying for revival in America.
