† Anthem Text †

Be Thou My Vision

Be Thou my vision, O Lord of my heart, naught be all else to me, save that Thou art, Thou my best thought by day or by night, waking or sleeping, Thy presence my light.

Be Thou my Wisdom, and Thou my True Word, I ever with Thee and Thou with me, Lord; Thou my great Father, and I Thy true son, Thou in me dwelling, and I with Thee one.

Riches I heed not, nor men’s empty praise, Thou mine inheritance, now and always, Thou and Thou only, First in my heart, High King of heaven, my treasure Thou art.

High King of heaven, my victory won, may I reach heaven’s joys, O bright heaven’s Sun, Heart of my own heart, whatever befall, still be my vision, O Ruler of all.

† Missions Moment †

Internationals (in particular refugees) often need help when they first arrive. Help is rendered for a while and then we may not ever hear from them again. Many move to the suburbs or even out of state. They become deeply involved in the day to day work of making a life here. We don't always know how they adjust or the impact we might have had on them as we try to be the presence of Christ each day.

Last week, I received a text from a refugee I had helped soon after his arrival in Houston. He was here only two weeks when we delivered a welcome food basket to him. He had been a translator for the American military in Afghanistan. It had become dangerous for him to remain there due to his association with the U.S. I helped him procure some furniture, his driver's license, and enjoyed taking him to a local Afghani restaurant for the first time. He was determined to make his way in this new country. I had not heard from him in quite a long time. And then his text came:

"Hi this is M. A., it's been a while I did not hear anything from you hope you and your family are doing well. I appreciate your all help when I came to America and I tell everyone that how helpful you were to me on the time. I moved to Denver about 2 years ago. Hope all is well with you and hear from you soon..."

I did not do much at all for him. Yet, it made an impact on his life. There are people all around us who just need a little help and to know someone cares. This is one way we can truly love our neighbor and be the presence of Christ.
